0:00–0:02 1. Meet Emanuel

RJ will open the episode with an introduction and Emanuel's bio.

0:02–0:10 2. The Journey to Apologetics

We'll invite Emanuel to share his journey toward apologetics and explain what apologetics means for listeners who may be unfamiliar with the term.

0:10–0:12 3. The State of Church Culture

I'll introduce the following statistics to frame our conversation:

- Declining attendance: Americans reporting attendance at religious services every week or nearly every week fell from 42% in 2000–2003 to 30% in 2021–2023, according to Gallup. This measure includes all religions, not only Christianity.
- Growing religious disaffiliation: Approximately 29% of U.S. adults identified as atheist, agnostic, or "nothing in particular" in Pew Research Center's 2023–2024 study.
- More departures than conversions: Pew found roughly six former Christians for every person who converted to Christianity in the U.S., comparing childhood religion with adult religious identity.

0:12–0:27 4. Beyond the Numbers: In Your Opinion, What Are Some of the Root Causes?

We'll ask Emanuel what he believes is driving these trends and what they reveal about church culture.

00:27–00:47 5. Can the Church Afford to Be Silent?

Our central discussion question is: Is the church responsible for addressing cultural and societal issues—including current events—that affect the people in its congregation?

Topics we may touch on include:

- Politics
- Nolan Wells
- Lynchings in Jackson, Mississippi
- Cornell University
- Giving and financial literacy: Are we emphasizing giving without equipping people with financial literacy?
- Trauma and family issues
- Marriage, including the agenda's statistic that 66% of divorcees consider themselves Christian

0:47–0:50 6. A 60-Second Case for Christ

We'll return to the Pew finding that 29% of U.S. adults identify as atheist, agnostic, or "nothing in particular," then invite Emanuel to offer a 60-second elevator pitch making a case for Christ. This is an opportunity to teach people who do not feel comfortable with evangelism how to start the conversation. The intention is literally for Emanuel to encourage viewers to start the conversation by "making it look easy."

0:50–0:55 7. Behind the Book: Purpose, Process & What's Next

We'll give Emanuel space to share what he has going on, discuss his book, explain what it means to him, and reflect on his experience writing it.
