10/20/26

Welcome, Mr. Lambert,

Bishop and Chairman T. D. Jakes, together with T. D. Jakes Enterprises, is pleased to welcome you to The NEXT Move Summit. We are honored that you have agreed to join us on stage for this meaningful event.

From October 21-23, 2026, Bishop Jakes, visionary and founder, will lead this highly anticipated Summit alongside you and a host of industry leaders. Together, you will help create an intentional experience designed to provide executive-level insight, meaningful relationships, and practical strategies for the next season of leadership. During the Summit, attendees can expect:

- Executive leadership sessions with Bishop Jakes
- Curated presentations from across the T.D. Jakes Group Ecosystem
- Strategic leadership conversations
- Meaningful networking with leaders from across the nation
- Practical tools and proven frameworks to strengthen your ministry, organization, or business

Thank you for bringing your presence and expertise into the room that matters. Your contribution to The NEXT Move will help shape impact for the world and for generations to come.

This packet includes important information about the Summit. Please review the details at your convenience so you are fully prepared for a successful experience. If you have any questions or concerns regarding your participation, please feel free to contact us at any time at executiveoffice@thepottershouse.org.

CREDENTIALS
Upon arrival at the venue, you will receive credentials granting access to the Summit. Except on the day of your session, credentials are required for entry to all Summit activities. To help maintain the integrity and security of the event, additional guests will not be permitted unless they are registered for the Summit.

MEDIA
Media credentials for the conference are strictly enforced and must be approved in advance due to the elevated security requirements for this event. Guests may not bring personal videographers, photographers, or any other media personnel unless they have been previously screened and approved by our Public Relations Director.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION
If you plan to arrive at the venue via rideshare or car service, please notify us in advance. We will note your designated drop-off point, and our Hospitality Team will be on standby to greet you at the Main Entrance, as indicated on the map. For those arriving by personal vehicle, parking is available in the parking garage. A parking pass has been included in the email.

GREEN ROOM
A community green room will be available for all stage guests one hour before their scheduled session. A host will escort you to the secure location. Our stage and production team will meet you there to help you prepare for your session.
